All payments made on a travel package to Clar' Escapes Travel are non-refundable and non-transferable. This policy is enforced as a result of Clar' Escapes Travel having contractual agreements with hotels, airlines and other travel vendors that will not allow us to obtain any refunds after booking. This way we can keep our package prices affordable and allow you to make monthly payments on your vacation.

TRAVEL INSURANCE: As indicated, when you registered for your group's travel package, travel insurance is recommended to protect your investment in the event of an emergency for a covered reason. Please research and choose a travel insurance policy carefully.

Please contact the insurance company directly to purchase the insurance that best meets your needs. If you have a favorite Travel Insurance that you like, feel free to use them. We are also giving you below several travel insurance resources, but you are not obligated to use the companies that we have listed. If you have a preexisting medical condition, most travel insurance companies require you to purchase a policy within 14-21 days of booking your travel package. If you do not have a preexisting condition, you can usually purchase the policy before the trip. The time limit varies by travel insurance companies, so please call the travel insurance to get your deadlines according to your specific needs.

Please Note: Clar' Escapes Travel, LLC is not a licensed insurance representative, thus we recommend that you contact the insurance company to get the plan that best meets your specific needs. Legally, we cannot advise you on what type of policy you need. Please make sure that you ask for a quote to include all of the expenses of your trip, flight, hotel, activities, etc. It is always recommended to ask the travel insurance company if they have a cancel for any reason policy.

Top 10 Reasons to Purchase Travel Insurance

There are hundreds of circumstances that could cause you to cancel your trip, return home early or force you to seek emergency medical treatment while traveling.

To demonstrate the importance of purchasing travel insurance, and emergency travel services, here are 10 common examples of what could go wrong.

1. It's 8:00 p.m. and you and your traveling partners arrive at the airport for a connecting flight, only to find that your flight has been canceled. Who can assist you with finding new flights to get everyone home?
2. Your bag was lost with your prescription medicine inside. You need help to locate your bag as soon as possible and have your emergency prescription filled. Who do you call? Please Note: We always recommend you carry your prescription medicine on the flight with you.
3. You're involved in an accident and adequate medical treatment is not available. Who will help coordinate a medical evacuation?
4. If one of your parents, children or a spouse becomes seriously ill and you must cancel your trip, what happens to your non-refundable deposits or pre-payments?
5. You arrive in New Orleans and your luggage doesn't. If it's lost, who will help you find it? If it's delayed, who will reimburse you for covered necessities? If it's stolen, who will reimburse you for its contents?
6. Your cruise line, airline or tour operator goes bankrupt. Who will pay for your non-refundable expenses? Who is able to assist in getting you to your destination?
7. You're walking down a street in Dubai and twist your ankle. Who is able to assist you in finding an English-speaking physician?
8. Three weeks before your scheduled arrival, a terrorist incident occurs in the city to which you are planning to visit. Who will reimburse you if you want to cancel your trip?
9. You are at a beach resort in the Caribbean, and you are forced to evacuate due to a hurricane which has made your resort uninhabitable. Who can assist you in being evacuated? Who will reimburse you for your lost vacation investment?
10. You have to return home early due to an unexpected emergency such as an illness or death in the family.

The answer to most of these questions is you would be responsible for the cost or face losing money on your travel investment. Don't allow this to happen. We suggest travel insurance to all of our clients just in case the "what if" happens to you. Please strongly consider travel protection coverage when you purchase one of our travel packages or buying travel in general. It's better to have insurance and not need it, than to need it and not have it!

Having travel insurance will protect your investment and give you peace of mind. Clar' Escapes Travel recommends you inquiring about a Cancel for Any Reason Policy. Purchasing this type of insurance is beneficial because it will allow you to cancel for any reason.
